Run Report 2255 – Kazi & Donka St Paddy's Day run @ MacDonald Park, Padbury

Preamble:

Our car pool had agreed to get to the Hash by our own efforts for the next 3 weeks, and I was intending to go by bike but felt bad as GM Donka was co-hare tonight so I offered a free drive for him. However, GM Donka advised that he was providing the Drink Stop so he offered me a lift which I gracefully accepted. The wearing of the green was much in evidence tonight in honour of St Paddy's Day [actually 17 March if anyone interested] run tonight. As I arrived at the run site in MacDonald Park - that well known motocross circuit of Mausei's - I was collared by DAGS who bemoaned that his walking App was now seeking to charge him! My Scottish genes came to the fore and I helped him download the Strava App that I, Squirt, Sheepthrills and others use.

The Run:

Co-hare and GM Donka returns tonight to take up the reins. The Hare Kazi is called onto the crate to tell us anxious Hashers about the run. He reckons it is a bit long and that he was too tired after setting it to do a Walkers short cut! So he thinks that just telling us that the Drink Stop will be in Mawson's Park, Hillary's is good enough! Obviously, Kazi never paid any attention to the words of wisdom in last week's Rag and Arseholeo's failings in this regard!

Off we head into the backstreets of Padbury. Seems like I am a lone FWB tonight as even Spud does not catch up with me but my wee mate Voodoo does and his excuse for not running with the running pack is that he put on his wrong shoes tonight. We manage to keep the Running pack in sight along Giles Ave and even on Barclay Ave where we see a FT to our left and a 4 in front of us. We should have back tracked the FT as most of the following Walking pack did! After a loop we reach Gibson Ave with the trail still heading out towards Pinnaroo cemetery. At this point I decided that I would never reach the Drink Stop and the promised Guinness without some help from my trusty iPhone and Google Maps. I needn't have bothered as I just needed to follow DAGS with his local knowledge and accompanied by Stupid and wee one eyed Billy. That's what I did until we passed DAGS house and he and Stupid took a short cut for home believing [correctly] that the Drink Stop was a stop too far! On my own now and no sound of the Running Pack [they were actually now in front of me!] or other Walkers I forgot about the cold and the dark and with determination and the thought of a Guinness to guide me, I eventually reached Mawson Park and the Drink Stop just as Kazi and Donka were packing up! As it was dark I did accept a lift back to the run site but only after I drank my Guinness! It was 6.05Km for me to the Drink Stop.

My spy in the Running Pack did not really do too much to enlighten me on the Runners efforts and his only real contribution was that Close to Me cheered the boys on as they ran past DAGS house! Bravefart did advise that the run was longish at 8.33Km but that they must have been running at a decent pace to be gone from the Drink Stop before I even arrived there!

Circle Up & Visitors and Returniks

Visitors:

None tonight

Returniks:

- Mac the Mouth - been recuperating after his major operation
- Pumpkin - don't you know me?
- DAGS - as usual looking after the little lady [Close to Me].

General Business:

Rooted is on the ball and is well prepared with an encyclopedia of jokes but the members would have been happy with the short story versions! At least this allows his physically challenged colleagues to be seated including welcome returner Mac the Mouth.

Song Master ELF is back this week and gets wired for sound once again - be careful with that plug as we don't want to electrocute him and get "Shakin' Stevens" rendition of the DD songs!

Short Horn proves once again that he has got himself in bad company and is first on the Ice tonight for using his mobile in the circle.

HardCase takes the opportunity of the Icing to deliver the first of his Irish jokes but I think that Rooted had worn down the audience!

Mase then tries to get things going again with a joke using Precious as his Laurel to his Hardy!
Mel Adjusted comes into the circle with some real General Business with an update on how Sir Kumsize was getting on after his unfortunate accident fracturing one his vertebrae. He will be in a back brace for many weeks but is mobile after a fashion and in relatively good spirits.

The supreme joke teller Barrelina then has a go with a tale about Popeye in Bali.

GM Donka then announces that it Tagg's birthday today but he could not make it to the run today but has put on 2 cartons for the boys. Good onya Tagg.

Bravefart who had been trying to keep his head under the parapet eventually fails and ends up on the Elf on Shelf seat. While he is there first Barrelina and then DAGS deliver more jokes.

Haberdash Precious points out the samples of car H4 badges on the Van with his name on them. You can have yours and he announces that Two Dogs will deliver these based on orders and payment received. ~~Half-Wit~~ Short Horn grabs GM Donka's attention and he ends up on the Elf on the Shelf seat for disrupting Precious.

GM Donka calls out Sheepthrills for 1 of 4 DD's in recognition of achieving 400 runs with Hamersley. It has only taken him 23 years says GM Donka - not so says Sheepthrills as he claims that it was exactly 24 years to the day since he joined the mighty H4. Funny the H4 Annual records Sheepthrills DOB with Hamersley as 22 February 1999?

Sheepthrills has a go at a joke too before accepting his DD.

The jokes then come thick and fast with first Biggles, then Barrelina, then Popeye and then Wimpy. Thinking that the momentum had swung HardCase tells his second Irish joke [he actually had 4 prepared but knew when to quit while ahead!].

In between all this hilarity first McCorkie [been a bit quite tonight] and then Bravefart find themselves on Ice for disruption I guess!

Somehow Sheepthrills manages to skip 2 & 3 of 4 DD's and is presented with his 400 Run badge by GM Donka and a final DD>

Charges:

First cab off the rank tonight with a charge is Mental Disorder. He charges Tampax for "flashing" Mini Disorder [his dog] at last week's run. He then attempts to charge DAGS for bad parking when in fact he was protecting the biker's bikes. He obviously did not know to quit while ahead and ends up with the DD as a reverse charge!

Stir has a go at charging his wee mate Molly Dooker for putting his feet on the newly repaired table - literally! Molly Dooker's defence was that it was not actually "his" feet but in fact were C-Man's but it did not save him from the DD.

Hash Hacker Tampax [obviously set up by Historian Rooted] charges Kazi for signing HardCase's name in the book but signing him as HardArse. I humour Kazi on this as we are both on the same number of runs but maybe I will sign him in as Krazi next week! DD Kazi. A pertinent point was made by one wisecrack as he said [correctly] that Tampax needed a new ironing lady - based on the state of his shirt!

Wimpy charges Molly Dooker for losing his Yellow hat tonight on the trail. First defender Stir says that Molly Dooker should not be penalised because he is dumb! Second defender McCorkie advises that there is no way that Wimpy found that hat on a path as he saw Molly Dooker did not wear it tonight. Charge reversed and Wimpy gets the DD.

WOW:

Kazi with his RA hat on climbs onto the crate and calls the incumbent WOW First Defence forward.

Wimpy tries his hand at a nomination implying that someone who should know did not remember who was WOW tonight. Very brave or very foolish Wimpy and it went no where!

First Defence ignores picking on someone weaker than himself as WOW but instead tries to challenge the validity of the award of the WOW shirt last week as the current WOW holder is Squirt and he was not at last week's run to hand over the WOW shirt to him. Calls to change First Defence's Hash name to No Defence did not gain traction but maybe Dumb Defence would be more appropriate. While incumbent WOW shirt holders are asked for their nominations for follow on WOW, at the end of the day it is the RA who actually awards the WOW shirt. First Defence found this out fairly quickly when RA Kazi announced it was a carry over!

[Scribe's note: Squirt is still a WOW as is First Defence and he is only borrowing the WOW shirt that silly Squirt gave to McCorkie who produced it last week]

Run Report:

Popeye is asked by GM Donka to do a Run Report. Popeye reckons this was Kazi's best effort as a Hare. It was a good run of 7.5 to 8Km [obviously Popeye missed a couple of FT's]. We had a good Drink Stop and Pizzas for tea so he gives it $8\frac{1}{2}$ / 10.

Next Week's Run:

HardCase at Glengarry Park, Duncraig. Dynamo's cooking so you will need your bowl and spoon!

Next week's Van driver:

Sheepthrills

Hash Lunch:

Munch Master Mel Adjusted advises that the next H4 Hash lunch will be on Friday 1 April 2022 at Northbridge Chinese Restaurant, 26, Roe Street, Northbridge @ 12.30pm. BYO.

Hares Act:

Co-Hare Donka takes the lead with the act on his guitar while Hare Kazi acts the fool [not difficult] with his interpretation of Irish dancing. Supporters were Stir [wrong song sheet], HardCase [song sheet holder for Donka] and of course our Song Master ELF [missing his cue!]. A clever little ditty, obviously written by Donka with a touch of "Send in the Clowns" from the supporting cast made it a pretty good act.

Song:

Mel Adjusted closes the circle proceedings with the perennial favourite "Raise Your Mugs".
