Run Report 2265 – Rooted and DAGS @ The White Castle, Padbury

Preamble:

It was another DY [drive yourself] tonight as my only remaining car pooler in Perth was Rooted who was the Hare tonight with DAGS as his trusty Co-hare. It was close to home though at DAGS "White Castle" abode in Padbury. It was pretty cold just before we set off on the run but after Van driver DV8 expertly parked the van breaking the wind in the car port that helped a bit. It was Rooted's celebration of achieving an OBE [Over Bloody Eighty] tonight although he actually put on a carton for his significant birthday date at last week's run. Numbers were down again with only 31 MOH [Men Of Hamersley] plus 1 Visitor attending tonight.

The Run:

Stand-In GM tonight was Troppo who invited Rooted onto the crate, but HSE protocols allowed him the dispensation not to make such an effort, to tell us about his run. There is a Runners and Walkers trails with the splits well marked. There will also be a Drink Stop declares Rooted. So off we head east along Warburton Ave towards Hepburn Heights. FWB's tonight were the usual suspects Spud/C-Man/HardCase joined by Coops [no ankle strapping] and Tampax [slow to get running]. The pace must have been better than last week as I did not hear any complaints from C-Man but then again his mate Gasman was MIA tonight. The Walkers skirted Hepburn Heights bush area and on over Hepburn Avenue whereas the Runners headed straight up the hill. HardCase was very comfortable with the area as he does a lot of walking in this locale so no chance of going astray tonight. On the other side of Hepburn Avenue we found a wee section of bush with tarmac path behind the Fire Station and at this stage we were pretty sure that the rumoured location of the Drink Stop was Rooted's house. About half way through the Walkers trail the rumour was confirmed when we reached the Drink Stop with Rooted and DAGS ladling out the ginger wine and lemonade.

Bloody great declares C-Man after demolishing his 6th cup of the stuff! Soon after we arrived so did the Runners followed by the remaining Walkers who followed the trail. A quick rendition of "Raise Your Mugs" and off we all headed on the in trail. The Walkers in trail was actually pretty good apart from being led off trail by SCB Voodoo who when we called "are you" he switched off his torch! However, the FWB's are an experience lot of Hashers though and soon found the Walkers trail again.

It was 7.26Km for the Runners trail and 5.27Km for the Walkers trail tonight.

Circle Up & Visitors and Returniks

Visitors:

"Super" Mario - a mate of Arseholeo and Mental Disorder

Returniks:

- MelAdjusted - just back from a work stint at Barrow Island
- DAGS - had Covid but now recovered

DV8 was a reluctant Returnik and was allowed to miss out on a DD by Troppo as he was the Van driver tonight.

Other Covid recovered Returniks tonight were Pole Polisher and Dik Van.

Covid Report:

Those members biting the Covid dust this week are:-

Disgraceful - tested positive Thursday morning and locked down since. Still having symptoms and feeling shot so far but will survive.

Popeye - feeling a lot better today after a few shitty days of running nose, headache and sore throat. Still tested positive this morning but the worst seems to be over and I'm on the mend.

Barrelina - positive PCR Monday morning. Feels like a bad cold, runny nose, sneezing and headaches. Kept at bay with cold and flu tablet so not doing too badly considering I appear to have a mild dose so far.

Shit Scraper - no news except that he tested positive on Tuesday morning.

General Business:

Stand-In GM Troppo resplendent in his tropical Hash shirt takes the crate and reminisces about his time as GM - it was over 20 years ago Troppo! There were a few other tropical shirt wearers including yours truly but Molly Dooker took the cake by dressing as a delinquent schoolboy and obviously took my "back to school" theme in the rag to heart.

Pina Coladas were only provided for Troppo and DAGS [who was Troppo's On Sec way back then] but they both recollected that they were not as potent as the ones concocted by Pylon at that time. Troppo invited a joke to be told to allow the seated brigade permission to take their seats and this was told by Mullet about Popeye in a pub and his best friend being a naughty dog!

Then Visitor, "Super" Mario, was not slow in coming forward and tells a joke about assistance in the men's toilets. This brought back memories for me as this joke was one of the classics told by my old Jakarta Hash mate and current Friday Hash On Sec, Inspector Gadget, that I have only heard about 100 times!

Troppo takes advantage of the limelight on the crate and tells a Mase type monologue that was very witty.

Haberdash Precious tries to rustle up customers for his new red hoodie's and asks members to try for size before he gets the hash name embroidery done that we want to do as a batch order.

Dik Van announces that Perth Crankers have their monthly bike ride on Sunday but does not tell us where this is.

Mel Adjusted enters the circle with lost property - a beanie with Voodoo embroidered on it that he returns to him.

Shit Scraper also has some lost property that was sitting on the top of a car with no H4 sticker on it. Blow Job's Hamersley stubby holder.

Troppo gave Molly Dooker kudos for his unruly schoolboy look and asked him what school he went to as he would report him to the headmaster!

Mullet asks visitor "Super" Mario how to pronounce "Rubber Toe" in Italian. "Roberto" was the answer but it was a bit lost on him. To be fair he may be called Mario but his heritage is German!

Troppo asked who had not heard Mental Disorder's tale of being accosted by a naked man [no not a lady boy!] last week. The members must be getting smart as no one put their hand up!

Charges:

C-Man is fast off the blocks and charges Voodoo for being off trail short cutting and trying to lead the Walking pack astray. Guilty and DD to him.

Mental Disorder [feeling left out by not being allowed to recount his tale of a naked man and show us the photographic proof in the circle] charges Bravefart over communications for his attendance at the Indochina Mekong Hash in Cambodia in November. Mental Disorder takes credit for getting both Bravefart and Baron special invitations to attend this event. C-Man makes the very valid point that they should be choosing to attend the significant 44th Anniversary of Hamersley Hash at the AGM on 14 November 2022 instead.

Spud charges MauSei for arriving at the Drink Stop with Captain Hook but then leaving him behind on the in trail. MauSei's defence that Captain Hook was being chaperoned by Precious did not save him from the DD.

WOW:

Both incumbent WOW's, Flasher and McCookie are MIA tonight. However that does not fluster our esteemed RA Kazi. He asks for nominations for WOW from members but only gets a pregnant silence in response.

Not to be deterred RA Kazi reckons that the four Hamersley men going to Indochina Mekong Hash in Cambodia instead of attending Hamersley's significant 44th Anniversary are worthy WOW. Baron/Mental Disorder/Arseholeo and Bravefart are duly paraded in the circle and members are invited to vote with their voices. Of course that was pointless as RA Kazi had already predetermined that none other than Bravefart was worthy of wearing the WOW shirt. DD to Bravefart. McCookie if you read this you need to bring back your hoard of WOW shirts as we are running short of these!

Run Report:

It was reported that 9 Runners ventured out on the trail to the Drink Stop but only 5 returned on the In Trail. FRB Molly Dooker was invited to give the Run report tonight and he said it was a good run, good checks, beaut Drink Stop and gives it 8½ / 10.

Troppo reckoned that the Runner's ran past his gym tonight but he did not manage to sign any of them up so missed out on any commission!

Next Week's Run:

Blow Job - Palace Run at Franklin's, 948, Albany Highway, East Victoria Park. Note it is a joint run and a 6.30pm start. Chicken Curry @ A$11 per person.

Next week's Van driver:

No Van next week

Hash Lunch:

Munch Master Mel Adjusted advised that the next Hash Lunch is on at 12.30pm this Friday 3 June @ Sup So Good, Vietnamese restaurant, 3/297, William Street, Northbridge. BYO grog.

Hares Act:

The Hare [ex-head teacher] Rooted takes centre stage and bemoans the fact that the Run report only mentioned the run that was laid by DAGS whereas he laid the Walkers trail! He calls on his seated brothers and others to assist him with his Act:-

MauSei/CaptainHook/Baron/Precious/Mullet/Troppo/MollyDooker/SirKumsize/"Super" Mario/Mental Disorder and Co-hare DAGS. Carefully prepared sketches and scripts are handed out and just like Rooted was back teaching Year 3 he orchestrates the Hamersley men to perform. A bit of rehearsal might have helped but star of the show is none other than Captain Hook! You should manage to get them in shape for the Xmas pantomime Rooted! DD to the Hares Rooted and DAGS.

Song:

Song #2 - "Australia's Hash" was sung with gusto by the circle tonight.
