Run Report 2201 – Pinnaroo Point, Hillary's

The Odd Couple

Preamble: _Crivvens, jings and help ma boab

GM C-Man calls the assembled Hamersley Men to order at 6.00pm and he invites the Hare Kazi onto the crate to tell us all about the run. Kazi says that it is all marked with chalk with a separate run for the H4 Walkers and there will be a drink stop. He also said "that the run was a bit longer than he thought"! We had 37 members tonight and 1 old returnnik and 2 visitors.

The Run:

HardCase sets the pace as the lead FWB [Front Walking Bastard] but he was soon caught up by another two FWB's namely GM C-Man and Coops. Out of Pinnaroo Point car park and right at Whitfords Avenue and a long haul down the pathway to almost reaching Hillary's Boat Harbour then a sharp left onto the main hash trail. The runners trail was a 2+Km drag down the beach path to the new Hillary's Ladder. The born-again runner Voodoo took the first opportunity that presented itself to shortcut off the beachside path that the H4 runners were on to pop out onto Whitfords Avenue and join the Walkers trail just in front of the FWB's. Eventually the running pack caught up with the FWB's just before reaching the drink stop but the FWB's did get caught on 2 out of the 5 false trails. As we received our port and lemonade at the drink stop the runners were keen to head home so Raise your Mugs were sung a bit prematurely but as it turned out it was sung by the full complement to actually reach the drink stop.

Circle Up & Visitors/Returniks

Tonight we had HardCase filling in again as scribe.

Visitors:

Buckley sponsored by Stir

Gareth sponsored by BraveFart who asked Voodoo to look after him on the run. After Gareth fell on the run Voodoo left him on his own and did not invite him on his short cut.

Fartin Sphincter from Perth Crankers

Returniks:

Mullaway – off fishing somewhere fancy

Dags - looking after Close to Me

Sheepthrills – Had to do some work

Swallow – no excuse just been busy

Fartin Martin – a member from long ago – the T-shirt still fits-just!

General Business:

Rooted gives an update on Mausei who has just had ankle surgery. He is recuperating well but won't be back for a few weeks. Rumours that he is starting up the Zimmer Frame Hash are vehemently denied. GM C-Man gives an update on Mel Adjusted who enters hospital on Tuesday with his triple bypass surgery set for Wednesday. So, the rumour on that is that he will soon be joining Voodoo as a born-again runner! Mase starts a joke about farting but I did not hear the punch line as too many members were not showing respect including those seated on the front stalls. GM C-Man acts and calls in Wimpy for a DD who is being wound up by Scrotus. GM C-Man tells us that it is now less than 2 weeks until Poor Man's Nash Hash in Cervantes. Friday night at the Footy Club with $5 beers. Runners/Walkers circle on the beach on Saturday followed by another wild extravaganza at the Footy Club again in the evening. Precious gives an update of new member First Offence's recovery from his horrific off-road motorbike accident. He is recovering slowly but it will be a while before he is back running on the Hash. Stir asks if there is a H4 act for Poor Man's Hash? GM C-Man asked if he had one in mind and he said yes – rehearsals tomorrow!

Rooted whinged that someone had "stolen" his 25-year hat when he passed the WOW shirt onto Mullet last week. Mullet promptly produced this hat and claimed that it had been found in a disabled toilet at a ladies nursing home! Replicar asked if Ampol was claiming his lost property [a Mug] found in the Van. As Ampol had gone home it was given to his bro' Capt Hook for safe keeping.

Charges:

Squirt advises that he was up in Broome recently on a Red Dress Run supposedly for charity but actually for a team participating in the RFDS Gibb River ride. He charges the other two H4 attendees Concorde and Screwdriver for not contributing to help buy an old H4 shirt that he bought at auction and was wearing. Only Concorde was in attendance and he was given a DD that he probably didn't need! Elf stood in for his fellow POM Screwdriver. GM C-Man charges Voodoo for not responding to HardCase's three calls of "are you" after he had shortcut onto the walker's trail but was quick to find his running legs again when he got within sight of the beer stop!

WOW:

Stand-In RA tonight was Scrotus but I'm afraid his broom didn't come from the Wicked Witch of the West and looked decidedly dangerous when wielded! He mounts the crate and calls the incumbent Wanker Mullet forward and asks if he has any nominations for WOW. Kazi says Mullet for claiming that he had sand in his eye and called off driving to the Hash last week. Kazi claims that he had a detached cornea. Bravefart also nominates Kazi based upon his encounter with John Cranwell's daughter on the Hillary's Ladder. Stir nominates his visitor Buckley for buying a smarter blue dress than Replicar for last week's Blue Dress run and then falling asleep and failing to make the run. Replicar asks if he can see the dress! Someone nominated Flasher for putting his name to next week's run in the book. Then up steps HardCase who nominates Voodoo for the charge of not calling on the run and not calling a false trail but sticking his hand up as though he was some sort of lead scout instead of the born-again runner that he really is! Voodoo tried to deny this but GM C-Man backed up HardCase's account. Scrotus narrowed it down to Flasher and Voodoo by democratic vocal support and Voodoo one by the narrowest of margins! DD to Voodoo after he figured out the correct way round to wear the WOW shirt. Scrotus also received a DD for his stand in RA efforts.

Run Report

Replicar as one of the 3 Kiwi runners tonight is called forth to provide the run report. He was not amused by such a long run especially the first 2+Km along the beach path without any checks!. There was also an injury to one of the visitors Gareth on the run. Only the 3 forementioned FWB's made it to the drink stop and there were quite a few walkers who had bitten off more than they could chew resulting in them getting back late to the circle. Replicar awarded the run a 6 then changed it to 7 out of 10 when he heard that the grub was Pizza tonight. [Scribes note: I did 7.12Km on the walker's trail and it was 9.8Km for the runners].

Ice

Only Kazi and then Concorde had the pleasure of sitting on the Ice this week.

Next Week's Run:

DONKA – Charles Riley Reserve, North Beach – St Patricks Day

Next week's Van driver:

COOPS

Hash Lunch:

Sir Kumsize gave the report on last Friday's Hash Lunch. After getting to the correct Asian restaurant venue in Roe Street [apparently the one's that the H4 have used in the past are 4 doors apart!] there was a reasonably small turnout but Rads was there helping sort out the menu. Boof reckoned that Sir Kumsize must have got Rads share but the H4 members were far from convinced. A few carried on to Shy Johns for some rice beer and met another old H4 member, Boxy, who is threatening to make a comeback.

Hares Act

Kazi appears in a dirty mac and Popeye Doyle hat and started singing that old Troggs song "Wild Thing". It was amazing as a real wild thing appeared in the shape of Wimpy vying for the role of cross dresser of the year. It was good effort but a pity that the main prop did not match the act though. Where is Concorde's fake prick when one needs it?.

Song:

Old member Fartin Martin was invited to close the circle with the standard Raise Your Mugs!
