Run Report 2216 – Lee Palace, Canning Highway

Screwdriver's Annual Restaurant Run

Preamble: _Crivvens, jings and help ma boab

A really cold night tonight being the winter solstice and the shortest day of the year. However, we still had 33 Hamersley men turn up tonight and all pay their A$10 to Hash Cash Baron as their contribution for the food at Lee Palace restaurant after the circle. A few latecomers due to someone losing a wheel on Canning Highway and causing a huge traffic jam.

Screwdriver is invited onto the crate to give us cold and shivering Hashers some directions. The trail is on chalk and there will be a drink stop so off we go at pace to try and generate some warmth!

The Run:

The runners take off over a park to the first false trail. They were falling over like ten pins, especially the P's– first Popeye and then Pole Polisher – should have gone to Spec Savers! The Hares were keeping the pack pretty well together with the use of false trails especially during the first half of the run. On my walk through the suburbs of Melville I met another guy walking and tried to enlist him as a new member. I was friendly and gave him the details of our website so can't do more than that. A few of the FWB's arrived at the drink stop not far behind the runners where the Hare Screwdriver was dishing out some nice full strength and mid strength beers. As usual the runners were desperate to get moving and we sung Raise your Mugs before the remainder of the walking pack arrived.

Circle Up & Visitors/Returniks:

Visitors:

No Visitors tonight

Returniks:

Spud – been a bit crook

Halfway – been in a black hole but got out

SirKumsize – been on a mission

General Business:

Spud is called forward by GM C-Man for gobbing off and told us that he was informing members of the upcoming special runs – Hamersley's Run no. 2222 and Hung's run down in Busselton both in August.

GM C-Man calls out Precious and demands his red Hoodie as he is freezing. This prompts Precious to open the box of Hoodies and distribute these to all members who have paid and ordered one.

Cookie advises us that it is Tampax's birthday today – 60 years young! Being the top club man that he is he puts on 60 cans for the boys! Good onya Tampax and a DD and a happy birthday from us grateful recipients of free beer!.

GM C-Man reminds Popeye that it is his birthday next week and can we expect more than 60 cans? Wait and see!

XYZ told us of the tumblers, Popeye, Pole Polisher and Mel Adjusted [who I did not witness].

Gasman says it must be a really cold night as even Rads has his hands in his pockets!

A postscript that Troppo forgot to raise at the Circle and Rooted told me at Coffee Club was that Slops has just become a Grandfather for the first time. His daughter gave birth to a wee girl, Chloe Marie. Mum and Bub are both well. Congrats to Slops from us all.

Charges:

GM C-Man calls out the 3 shortest men in the Club, Flasher, Elf and Voodoo to celebrate the shortest day of the year. DD to all.

Cookie upset about being late whinges about the food again and charges the Hares for serving Pork crackling as nibbles that were way beyond their sell by date. Rads said that they were from China so not to worry!

WOW:

The Real RA Cookie mounts the crate and calls the incumbent WOW, Kazi, into the circle. When asked if he had any nominations for WOW Kazi nominates himself as a carry over as he does not want to remove the 4 layers of clothing that he has on!

Wimpy charges Cookie for laying shit on last week's Hare Blow Job about the food he not only provided but cooked himself comparing it to a soup kitchen. Especially as he had 2 servings of pumpkin soup and 3 servings of shepherd's pie. A brave try Wimpy, but you should realise that there is no way that Cookie is going to award the WOW shirt to himself. Cookie does not even wait for other nominations from the circle and awards the WOW shirt to Wimpy.

Fun aside, Blow Job did a very good job with the food last week and was given kudos for it in last week's Rag and anyone who puts on a decent feed is unworthy of a charge.

Run Report:

Spud a returning FWB was asked to give the run report. He told about the FRB's tripping on a root [Popeye] or was it a buffalo runner! The JM's caught up with the pack before the climb back uphill. It was a good drink stop as Spud had 3 beers, drinking with both the runners and the walkers. Good snacks apart from the pork crackling! He started with a 9 and then ended up giving it a 10.5/10 – not sure what school Spud went to but obviously arithmetic was not his best subject!. It was 5.8Km for the walkers and according to Bravefart it was 6.93Km for the runners, just a wee bit longer with them doing all of the false trails.

Ice:

A bag of Ice was brought out but GM C-Man was being benevolent on such a cold night so no one was given the honour of sitting on it tonight.

Next Week's Run:

Dags – At Dags hacienda opposite the shops on Warrandyte Ave, Padbury

Next week's Van driver:

Hippo, who is with us tonight and confirms that he is fit and able to drive the van next week.

Hash Lunch:

No Tagg tonight so no news on the next Hash Lunch.

Hares Act

Wong Can Do [Screwdriver] and Twiggy [Rads] continue the saga of the Iron Ore billionaires. It centred on Wong Can Do's visit to Singapore on his way to Australia [first class of course] and taking pity on those currently unemployed he buys 1,000 warehouses. He needs some stalwart Hamersley men to open them up

Song:

Mental Disorder was called out to do the song but he obviously has not read his annual yet so he does not know any words to any of our Club songs yet. His mate Gasman helps him out by starting Raise Your Mugs!

We then go round the corner into the Lee Palace restaurant where they served us some pretty delicious food for only A$22 per head. Kudos to the restaurant and the Hares choice of this.

Before this, Cookie decides to throw around the remnants of a bag of potting mix over those in the circle with Gasman copping more than his share and inadvertently bringing this into the restaurant on his jacket. Point of Order here is that Cookie as the Real RA is supposed to be controlling the behaviour of the members in the circle and not encouraging delinquent behaviour that is unworthy of a former CEO.
