Run Report 2217 – Dags Hacienda, Padbury

Dags and Rooted [MIA]

Preamble: _Crivvens, jings and F*^k ma boab

Fit a Raid up. Jist fan we thought that we wir o'er the wurst of this covid debarkal, anudder lockdown looms

A total of 37 MOH turned up tonight suitably masked except for a few notable exceptions Elf and Tagg being a couple of them. Before anyone feels the need to call the Covid Help line a few members left before the circle commenced making us Covid legal given the current Phase 1 restrictions.

Dags mounts the crate to give instructions to the runners and walkers and to advise that there would be a drink stop. He also informed the members as to why his Co-hare Rooted was MIA. Apparently, he had visited one of the identified contact hot spots, Craigie Leisure Centre, and was isolating and will be going to get tested so was looking out for his Hash mates by staying home tonight. I heard Dr. Elf give us some reassuring words that there was no way that Rooted would have caught anything in the sauna!

(Post note – Rooted went and got tested and result was negative. Well done Rooted for protecting his mates.

The Run:

The runners took off, but the walkers were held back for further instructions and this was for Dags to give Halfway short cutting instructions to the drink stop. As we set off for what we thought was a warmer night than last week a cold wind started to blow but getting a up a decent walking pace soon warmed us up. Basically, the walkers missed all of the loops and FT's leading up to the drink stop on Giles Ave. The Hare Dags obviously does not feel the cold as he was still in his bare feet at the drink stop! Difficult to understand why so many runners/walkers got lost as the trail was well marked but then again I was with Halfway. There was a wee shower on the in trail to keep us on our toes but nothing worth worrying about – the real rain came after the circle!

Circle Up & Visitors/Returniks:

Visitors:

No Visitors tonight

Returniks:

Stir – missed last week as he did not want to take Cookie's share at the restaurant

Dags – looking after Close To Me

Nice Tits – been working

Blow Job – was crook last week

Mac the Mouth – first time out of bed in 9 weeks

Molly Dooker – was a bit crook last week

Tagg – been planning next Hash lunch

General Business:

Mase entertains us with a little humorous ditty to allow those with passes to be seated.

In an entertaining mood Barrelina delivers one of his jokes as only he can.

GM C-Man reminds us of Hung's memorial run in Busselton in August and asks who is registered from Hamersley.

Dags asks if the new Red Hoodies that several members were wearing tonight were up to Haberdash Precious's standards and worth the money. Yes, was the answer as long as you don't wash them!

It was noted that Popeye pissed off home early and avoided putting on a carton for his birthday but GM C-Man would not forget. Meladjusted steps into the breach and says he will put on a carton after the circle for his own birthday. Good on you Mel!

Charges:

Kazi lays a charge on Voodoo saying that he was talking to him on the run about where he had put his finger to get it so damaged that it needs strapping for months? The reply encouraged Kazi to up his pace and leave Voodoo who promptly got lost on the trail. DD to Voodoo for being a flogger [according to GM C-Man].

Next Bravefart steps into the circle and tells Voodoo to stay where he is for another charge. Bravefart reckons that Voodoo's racing stripe long pants and ski socks are non athletic. Cookie pipes up in Voodoo's defence and as a result the charge is reversed DD Bravefart.

Barrelina has another go at a joke using Voodoo as material about a top of the range $800 vibrator making her moan all week. Not really a charge so Barrelina gets a DD for his efforts.

The oldest Hasher in the Club, Precious, is called forward to explain why Mental Disorder did not get his welcome pack and H4 annual and that was his excuse for not knowing the words to the H4 Hash song last week. DD Precious.

Cookie attempts a charge starting with him referring to an article in the paper then quickly loses the attention of the members by rabbiting on ending up charging Troppo as Wankerman with no one any the wiser as to what it was all about. Cookie points out that there are only a few smart men in the Club who can read, one of those being his “mate” HardCase who due to this ends up as guilty by association and shares a DD with Cookie.

GM C-Man asks for last charges before the suit not the soup takes the crate.

Meladjusted and Disgraceful are charged for doing their own shortcut. DD to both.

Wimpy tries to charge Cookie about what I have no idea but without success. DD Wimpy.

WOW:

The Real RA Cookie mounts the crate and calls the incumbent WOW, Wimpy, into the circle. When asked if he had any nominations for WOW Wimpy nominates:-

- Cookie with Popeye ragging the Eagles poor performance over the weekend and missing the arrows as a result
- Kazi for leading a short cut through the shopping centre on the way home
- Scraper for being unlucky in love

Other nominations were:-

- Molly Dooker for leading the running pack on the wrong direction after the drink stop
- Popeye [postponed until next week]
- Dags for letting Rooted potentially infect the Club with Covid

Then Kazi, who seems incapable of opening his mouth and putting both feet in it, repeats the previous charge on Dags as it was his own. Kazi is the Wanker [got to be careful you don't take Voodoo's crown Kazi]

Run Report:

Kazi as it seemed to be his night again was asked to give the run report. He said that the run was quite good although a bit short for athletes like him. Only 2 FT's but he obviously missed the other 3 and maybe that was why it was a bit short for him! A nice drink stop where he had a Carlton Mid and with Pumpkin soup on the menu he gave it a 7/10. It was less than 4Km for the walkers with Halfway in charge of the shortcutting advise from Dags. The runners would have done probably a couple of Km's more given when they arrived back.

Ice:

Kazi – for taking the WOW shirt off and not wearing it next to his skin

Boof – for being unruly and having a beer throwing competition with Kazi

Next Week's Run:

Replicar – At our regular safe spot of Millington Reserve, Karrinyup – Lockdowns permitting!
It's bring a Can night – but no fish, beetroot or dog food!

Next week's Van driver:

GasMan, who is covering his swap with HardCase a few weeks ago

Hash Lunch:

Tagg enters the circle and tells us in his inimitable way that the next Hash Lunch on Friday is at or near 450 William Street, Northbridge and it is a BYO. He will send out an email to all.

NOTE - Due to the 4-day Lockdown imposed on Perth and Peel that we heard about after the circle closed this lunch is postponed until Friday 9 July [Covid restrictions permitting]

Hares Act

Dags assembles his choir [Coops/Biggles/Troppo] and entertain us with some old Hash favourites I Like my Vino and the Fisherman song.

Song:

Mac The Mouth was called out to do the song and led us into H.A.M.E.R.S.L.E.Y with gusto.

ON ON

C-Man / Donka 33/52 (Hardcase 4/_)

NOTE ; We will assume that next week's Run will go ahead until we hear what further restrictions may be in force
