Run Report 2225 – Webber Reserve, Willagee

Rads with Screwdriver

Preamble: _Crivvens, jings and help ma boab

It was a cold but thankfully dry night tonight when 37 MOH assembled at Webber Reserve for Rads run. It appears that Rads had to set the run on his own as his Co-hare Screwdriver was called to a work meeting. Fair enough and as we always used to say in Jakarta – “the Hash doesn't pay the bills”.

Rads gives the members information on the run from the crate. The run is on chalk only and there is a walker's trail splitting off from the runner's trail. Coops was called forward for 2 of 17 DD's for achieving 1700 runs with the great Hamersley [I'm not sure when he got 1 of 17!].

The Run: Off we went and I ended up walking with the GM C-Man who was well acquainted with the area as he lives relatively close by. Apparently, there were very few laneways in the area, so the route of the run was somewhat limited and we did a not so long rectangular route. Rads did introduce quite a few FT's for the runners that allowed the walkers to keep in touch with them for a fair part of the run. I recorded 4.35Km and Bravefart advised that it was 7.45Km for the runners.

Circle Up & Visitors/Returniks:

Coops is called forward for 4 of 17 DD's. Don't blame me for the counting I just write this rag! Shit Scraper manages to disrupt proceedings by dropping his mug in the circle and gets a DD as punishment.

Coops then drinks 6/7/8 of 17 helped by his first and last Co-hares – Troppo and First Defence.

Visitors:

None tonight

Returniks:

None tonight

General Business:

Screwdriver steps into the circle in his role of Interhash Sec and complains that his bank account is empty with so many overseas [Interhash in Trinidad and Tobago] and home soil events [Nash Hash in Adelaide] being postponed or delayed. Nash Hash in Adelaide is now rescheduled for w/e of 25 March 2022 and Interhash is now but a dream! There was some talk in the circle about a Poor Man's Nash Hash in Cervantes but GM C-Man counselled that we need to wait and see what Albany convict Hash will be doing as they have apparently put their hand up for a WA event.

Precious then asked who present had not received their special Run 2222 singlet. No hands went up. Last call was made for the second run of H4 Red Hoodies but it does not seem to be much interest in this.

Bravefart with his JM hat on advised that he had been informed by Nice Tits unmentionable Small Goods that he is now back working on a fly in fly out job but on a 3/1 weekly work roster. Therefore, he needs someone to take over setting his run scheduled for 25 October 2021. Molly Dooker puts his hand up quickly. He must be in the running for H4 volunteer of the year. Good onya Molly Dooker.

Bravefart continues with a complaint about upcoming Hares namely, Arseholeo, Shit Scraper, Ampol and Mullet not responding to his email about providing run directions for their upcoming runs.

It was noted that First Defence had failed to qualify for the upcoming Paralympics to represent Hamersley!

Charges:

Cookie as tonight's Van driver charges Rads for failing to identify and mark where he was supposed to park it tonight. This allowed some of us to witness Cookie's reversing skills! He had asked Tagg and then Arseholeo [seems like the self-proclaimed smartest man in Hash in not that smart after all!] but they had no idea.

Rads defence was that it was marked as the Disabled Bay and that is where Cookie parked! That brought Captain Hook into the charge and it was DD's to all.

Biggles then charges the 2 B's [Bravefart and Boof] who although doing a good job as JM's are failing to deliver the beer tokens being paid for the Mugless to Hash Cash Baron. Apparently, this charge was reversed as it was claimed that such beer token fines are not being applied anymore. DD to Biggles.

Kazi then faces the circle and charges Molly Dooker for wearing new shoes. He is not a lucky lad is our Kazi as he ends up drinking from his own shoe with Molly Dooker drinking from the other one!

GM C-Man regales his walk tonight with HardCase and XYZ and Voodoo trailing behind and coming upon Baron and Precious who claimed they were on the walking trail!. This then somehow became a charge on Cookie for his famous brother living in Willagee and having a street named after him that was passed on the run – DD to Cookie in recognition of his brother Bill Heyland the Wharfie!

WOW:

The Real RA Cookie steps onto the crate but before he could get WOW nominations going the Hash were taken aback by his new pink shoes. Cookie reckoned that he was just demonstrating his inclusiveness of those less fortunate – particularly Captain Hook and Molly Dooker and vertically challenged ELF! At the same time Cookie is not too forgiving and promised that the wrath of the RA would descend upon the pleb that painted his shoes pink. At this point Stir pops into the circle and asks for HardCase's writing board but he is reluctant to hand this over as he could see someone take it from Stir and launch it over the Van! He relents and unfolds the board to show the outline of a shoe with pink overspray paint around it! The inference of course is that HardCase is the phantom shoe painting culprit. Our Cookie is not taken in by such slander though [maybe he is smarter than we think after all!]. Stir then entertains the circle with a very clever song about Cookie and proves that our RA can take it as well as dishing it out! It was so good I've copied the words here to the tune of She's a Barbie Girl.

Barbie Cookie

He's a Barbie Girl – In a Barbie World
Thinks that he's fantastic – Teeth are made of plastic
Thinks that he's a Hare – Bullshit everywhere
Come on Barbe – Let's go Barbie

He's a Barbie Girl – In a Barbie World
Thinks he's full of wit – And that his shit don't stink
Always throwing something – And is talk is numbing
Imagination – He's his own creation
Come on Cookie – Don't be Sooky

Happy all the time – Brought the Bus on time
Always acts the clown – now drink this bastard down
Down Down

Captain Hook then enters the circle with the WOW shirt in hand that he says was received by mail [not email!] from Wimpy. Is Wimpy not coming back to the Hamersley? Maybe he is just establishing a new tradition of passing on the WOW shirt to someone else!

RA Cookie reckons he has a WOW nomination and it involves corruption in the Club. As Van driver tonight he received an email from Replicar asking if he would be taking any passengers tonight and if not this would allow him to sell the spare front seat to Sir Kumsize. Replicar reckoned it was just a figure of speech and his fellow Hash Splash Sheepthrills offers to defend him. While both Hash Splashes were in the circle Arseholeo decides that he needs a beer and rather than going in the back of the Van tries to climb in over the serving counter. Somehow he manages to secure a beer but on his way out loses his balance and knocks HardCase's beer mug full of beer all over his back! HardCase is not a happy camper and wants Arseholeo punished by having him sit on the Ice. Instead, this gives Cookie the opportunity that he is looking for and he awards the WOW shirt to Arseholeo. DD to him.

Coops is then brought in for 12 to 16 of 17 DD's ably supported by one time Co-hares Baron, Replicar, Captain Hook. Coops is awarded his 1700 Run badge and DD by GM C-Man. Coops is lauded [another word for you to look up on Google!] for his efforts as a good nay great Hamersley Club man. Reminisces were told by Stir [tendon break in Phuket], C-Man [sharing a villa at Interhash in Fiji, Mullet recent trip in July to Cocos and Christmas Islands. Of course, someone had to bring up the memory of his caravan redecorating at the Palindrome run at Lake Leschenaultia.

Run Report:

GM C-Man calls forward Baron to do the Run Report. He starts by talking about round the Block following GM C-Man and HardCase. He is then interrupted by Boof who baulks [Google is getting a beating!] at a walker doing a Run Report. Biggles then steps forward and praises Rads for a well set run. Good nibbles and hopefully some roast chicken [in fact it was bacon sandwiches with lots of bacon] Biggles award sit 8/10 +1 for the roast chicken but -1 for Boof's interruption.

A point of order here in that there is nothing wrong with a walker doing a Run Report. We are all one club of Hamersley Hashers and forgiving of one another's failings and foibles [I'm getting you going aren't I?] As I have told Boof a day will come when even he will no longer be able to run.

Ice:

Nobody tonight but Arseholeo should have sat on Ice for knocking stand in Scribe HardCase's beer all over his back!

Next Week's Run:

Surprise, surprise it is the new WOW Arseholeo at Beasley Park, Leeming. Watch your back Arseholeo!

Next week's Van driver:

According to the last H4 Rag it should be Mudguard says Cookie. Someone needs to contact Mudguard as it is unlikely he will be available to drive the Van. Mother's turn as Van driver was substituted by Molly Dooker last week, but he is still on the list as Van driver but not next week he says as the run is in Leeming where he lives.

Hash Lunch:

Tagg follows up from his email to all and in his "uniek" style [guess what language that is?] tells the assembled members that next months Hash Lunch will be on Friday 3rd September @ 12.30pm. He hopes that you all like Vietnamese and it will be at a Vietnamese restaurant [funny that!] around 450'ish William street in Northbridge.

Hares Act

Rads and his late arriving Co-hare Screwdriver came up with a witty Little Johnny story centred on Meghan and Harry that went down well and just finished it off with a couple of good oldies but goodies jokes. Good effort lads. DD to both.

Song:

Coops the 1700th run achiever is given the honour of delivering the circle closing song H.A.M.E.R.S.L.E.Y
