Run Report 2240 – Perry Lakes, Floreat

Preamble:

Voodoo and Boxy are this week's Hares and after a bit of confusion [all your own fault according to Voodoo] we eventually find the run site - the only one in Perry Lakes with very limited parking spaces on tarmac! The saga of Voodoo and the Rangers continues with the arrival of a lady Ranger who tells us that we can't park on the grass so we need to move most of the cars that are so parked before the Run begins. Before the run Rooted gives us a wee poem about one of the Founders of Hash - Gispert ["G"], as we are commemorating the founding of the Hash in Kuala Lumpur 83 years ago. Anyone wishing to read what I think is a fairly accurate article about the Hash beginnings should check this out on the H4 website in the link titled Hash Origins.

The Run:

Voodoo takes to the crate and tells us that there is a Runners trail and a Walkers trail and that they converge to meet up at a Drink Stop. The Runners and Walkers head off across Perry Lakes together with a long loop towards and over Oceanic drive. Up to the top of the wee hill on Roscommon Nature Reserve for a Song Stop. Still a few keeping up with the Running pack at this stage. Then it's off South side of Bold Park where the Runners take the high Walkers take the low road to the Drink Stop. DV8 takes the Walkers on the On In trail and we are all back at the within the hour. According to Boof it was 6.6Km for the I recorded 4.11Km for the Walkers, hardy walkers into the road and the the lead for Van well Runners while

Circle Up & Visitors and Returniks:

Returniks:

- Pole Polisher - is a Fireman bold he pits oot fires!
- Spud - Welcome back into the pack
- Fartin' S - Only missed one week now a dedicated H4 man
- Rads - I'm back!
- Barrelina - I thought he was present last week!

Visitors:

- Ray Armstrong [no relation to Lance!] - a mate of Stir's and Virgin hasher

General Business:

GM Donka takes to the crate and puts on his Leprechaun Hat [an Irish Elf] and introduces his Elves hats and seat.

Rooted comes up with 3 jokes to allow the physically challenged to be seated. [Note for the record: The only thing Scottish about Mel Gibson was the St Andrew's cross painted on his face in the film Braveheart - a film that was far from historically correct but no doubt made a lot of people a lot of money!].

RA Kazi tries to get ELF on ICE for throwing a can and missing the drum but GM Donka was in a benevolent mood so lets him be the first to sit on the Elves seat! Wimpy closely follows suit for some other misdemeanour!

ELF addresses concerns about his ability to throw his voice as Song Master raised by McCookie and deftly comes up with a clever riposte and thanks the Member from mosquito infested Maylands for his concern.

Barrelina tells his first joke of the night - something about elephants working for peanuts. Biggles is invigorated and tells a longer joke with the punch line "van arial disease". Get it? Mase gets into the act with his own joke about smelling peanuts on your breath quickly followed by Mental Disorder with a cross dressing joke. To close out the joke telling session Troppo tells one about holding a skunk's nose! DD to all the jokers.

Rooted is then called forward to hush the pack and recognise our newest 40 year member - Stir sometimes a called McStir due to being a McAllister!

Dingo is first up with reflections of Stir's career with Hamersley and says that he has been either a "thinking man's idiot" or "idiot man's thinker" The Casino caper is mentioned and the key role that Stir played as the "inside man". Then the run through the "Poly pipe" tunnel where Stir confuses the security while Dingo moves as quick as a rabbit down a hole.

Mase reminds us of the Sludge's factory fiasco where adding "fuel to a fire" went way beyond a joke! Boom! Followed by the fire on a hill in Balcatta "highlighting" H4!

Biggles follows suit and reminds us that the Boom smashed all adjoining properties windows and set off their security alarms. Stir has been the No.1 Entertainer from Peter Allen "gonna cut my finger's off" to his Golden Suit at Interhash in Chiang Mai.

Wimpy closed the accolades for Stir by penning and delivering his heartfelt poem "a man called Bruce".

Mother as a fellow 40+ year member was asked to deliver the "Ode" and present Stir with his 40 year Hat.

DD to all with an ELF singing his composition of the stirring Scottish National Anthem "Flower of Scotland".

Then Mother presents GM Donka with his very own Hamersley GM Mug.

Mel Adjusted gives a report on the memorial picnic on Sunday for Slops and Rambling. A good turnout of 50-60 were there including 10 from Hamersley. The Perth Crankers even had their monthly ride from the Matilda Bay location.

HardCase advised that he had been in touch with Scrotus who was scheduled to drive the Van for the Mary Xmas run on 20 December. He is still in rehab and offers one or two tokens to anyone who will volunteer to drive the Van for him that night. Our new 40 year member Stir immediately puts his hand up. Good onya Stir.

Pole Polisher advised that one of our senior members was disappointed with his low profile in the recent H4 annual and asked him to take a photo for next year's annual - DAGS is immediately brought into the circle and sat on the Ice Bucket for his stand alone photo!

Coops then presents ELF with his Song Master "L" plates to indicate that he is still under probation! Coops then advises us that the Poor Man's Hash at Cervantes will be held again next year 22-25 April 2022 over the Anzac Day long weekend. Swallow swans in to the circle and fills in for ELF with a DD song for all.

McCookie feeling left out of things enters the circle and tries [unsuccessfully I may add] to undermine GM Donka's Tartan Army Committee by handing out small squares of tartan that he reckons he bought at Midland Markets but more likely half-inched from that handed out by GM Donka a couple of weeks ago. Dingo being the intellectual that he is must correct McCookie in that Scotch is something that is found in a bottle and "Scots" is the proper term from those of us actually born in Scotland!

Spud advises us that MIA Screwdriver is organising a casual Sundowner at The Lucky Shag at Barrack St Jetty on Saturday 18 December starting at 5.00pm. Open invite to all Perth Clubs.

Historian Rooted advises that he has the old H4 run book dating back to 2006 but asked if anyone had any books preceding this to keep our H4 heritage intact. No takers and no positive ideas where such books may be.

HardCase advises all that the first committee meeting of GM Donka's Tartan Army will be at his place on Tuesday 7 December 2021.

Charges:

First charge comes from Replicar, who charges McCookie for ignoring a fellow member while he was walking with his wife down by the river [Kiwis obviously have natural immunity to mozzies!] when he ran past with another non hasher. McCookie's defence was that it was his son in law and he was showing him how to make money and that lesson was lost on Replicar. For some obscure reason the charge reversed. DD Replicar. [Note: maybe it is RA Kazi who should have the "L" plates!].

Wimpy charges Mel Adjusted as the new Munch Master for not inviting GM Donka and other senior committee members to the Hash lunch last Friday.

Concorde charges Mullaway for snubbing the H4 table at lunch to sit with Tagg who was hoping for some SOP Hash guys to turn up and join him. Mullaway's defence was that he was wearing an H4 40th anniversary shirt and that Concorde would not make room at the table for him and he felt sorry for Tagg.

WOW:

RA Kazi mounts the crate but the current WOW incumbent McBravefart is MIA this week as he is sick. That does not hinder RA Kazi though as he asks WOW in Waiting, McCookie, if he has any nominations. Of course, he does! The first being Voodoo for the FU with the parking and his continued agitation of the Bold Park Rangers! Then he nominates his "mate" Pole Polisher for a discussion in the front group [aye Pole Polisher was probably having a pee!] talking about the female Ranger looking good [one of you needs spectacles!] and something about the GM not looking good?

Spud nominates Flasher for failing to move his car before the start of the run as directed by the Ranger risking a A$100 fine for the Club.

RA Kazi nominates Mental Disorder for trying to upstaging him in the body builder competition stakes and producing a photo that looked nothing like Mental Disorder as proof.

Scraper nominates Precious for losing his keys in Scraper's car [for the 2nd time!] causing Scraper to return to the Perth Crankers site at Matilda Bay on Sunday when he was almost home.

The winner ... sorry the WOW is Flasher as so decreed by RA Kazi!. DD to him.

A bit out of sequence, but that is GM Donka's prerogative as he calls Spud forward for an accolade and DD for all his hard work in helping put the H4 annual together that was issued to members early in the proceedings.

Run Report:

Spud is called forward to do the Run report and it was a good choice by GM Donka. I was walking with Spud early in the run and I reckon that he must have been doing some secret training during his absences from Hamersley. His walking pace has improved significantly so much so that he missed the Runners/Walkers split and ended up on the Runners trail! Spud reckons it was a nice run through the bush. Even McCookie relayed to Spud that he thought that it was quite an enjoyable run and there was even a drink stop. Voodoo advised Spud to watch out for the long grass as it was over his head but only up to Pole Polisher's waist he reckoned! Spud awards the Run 9/10 and then adds $\frac{1}{2}$ for the food so $9\frac{1}{2}$ /10.

Next Week's Run:

The Hare is Disgraceful and he enters the circle and tells us that it is at the Lions Club Oval in Ballajura [address and directions as above] and that there will be food.

Next week's Van driver:

Screwdriver [looking for a stand-in I hear!]

Hash Lunch:

Mel Adjusted gives a report on the Hash lunch last Friday saying that there were 13½ attending. The 1½ being Mullaway and Tagg as the sole representatives of SOP Hash. Good food and good company.

Hares Act:

Voodoo with Boxy as his prop act as an armless and legless person. It was an old joke acted out and slanted to apparently reflect poorly on GM Donka and his Tartan Army - specifically him and HardCase as fellow Aberdonians!. On-Sec HardCase gives Voodoo his first warning which lucky for him he heeds - the power of the pen can be crushing! He carried on with the joke with photos that he must have taken out of his copy of Playboy as there is no way such women exist at Aberdeen beach even in summer and I should know as I used to work there! The punch line was about the poor unfortunate promised to be screwed and told that he would be when the tide came in.

Songs:

The new 40 year Member Stir closes proceedings with "Raise Your Mugs"
