Run Report 2195 – City Beach Oval

Young and Old \(On the Beach\)

Preamble: _Crivvens, jings and help ma boab

No GM C-Man tonight and On Sec Donka still down south in Pemberton so Bravefart fills in as stand-in GM and HardCase as stand-in Scribe given that Kazi was the co-hare tonight. As always, the Scots fill the breach! According to Mausei's checking of the Book there were 37 Hamersley stalwarts tonight and 1 Visitor. Bravefart mounts the crate and the Hare Wimpy is invited to take his place and tell the boys about the run. Wimpy says we are mostly on chalk and there is a drink stop. Runners piss off towards the Oval and Walkers wait for further instructions.

The Run:

Your stand in Scribe opted to follow the runners onto Oceanic Drive and left after a false around the back of the Oval and then it was over West Coast Highway into the posh area of City Beach. All was going well and I was keeping in touch with the runners until we reached the City Beach Primary school when the last of the runners, my ex-mate Voodoo told me the runners were heading right and that I should go round the school anti-clockwise to meet them. What I did meet was an FT coming from the other direction and no sight of the runners! Why after all these years I keep listening to Voodoo is beyond me and maybe I need a spell in Graylands! I never saw the runners again but I have been doing this Hashing game for a while so I did find bits of the trail and managed to find my way to the drink stop just in front of the runners at Floreat Beach car park. The drink stop offered a "Blue Velvet" concoction and copious beers. Overall, I did 5.5Km walking and according to Bravefart the runners did 8.7Km.

Circle Up & Visitors/Returniks

Bravefart mounts the crate and looks at me expectantly for the run number but as Kazi had forgotten to bring me the Hash template it was not shown on my substitute template kindly provided by Replicar. No one else knew the Hash run number so we were all in good company!

Before we got to the Visitors and Returniks, Mullaway was called out for a DD for continued talking and interrupting the circle proceedings!

Visitors:

Short Horn from Kowloon hash – not yet a member as he has not paid his subs according to Hash Cash Baron.

Returniks:

Boof - back from his holidays

Mullaway – only been absent 1 week

Blow Job

General Business:

Bravefart advised the Hash Physically Handicapped to pick up their chairs and walk – only to the other side of the circle! Mullet provided the joke for the HPH's to be seated. "Got home late from the Pub to be met by the wife at the front door. She said Pissed Again and I said so an I"

Pitstop put up his hand but when asked about GB he said he did not know the next thing to do!

The JM's Bravefart and Boof advised that there was a Hare required for the run on the 1 February 2021. Kazi put his hand up and swapped out for his run in March. This earned Kazi a free beer token to offset against the 3 that he owes the Club for not having a mug for his DD's!

Mausei told a joke about an English guy in Texas who wants to buy a gun – a 45 Magnum. The store owner asks him what he needs a gun for and he says for shooting cans. He is offered a 22 for doing this but he insists on his need for a 45 Magnum. What sort of cans are you shooting asks the store owner – Mexicans, Africans ... says the English guy!

Other jokes were told by Mase and Baron but these were told too quickly for me to record them in their entirety!

Charges:

Concorde charges the JM's who were FRB's on the trail for not calling an FT. Brave man Concorde to challenge the JM's when one of them is on the crate and that resulted in him christening the ice! Cookie tries to be Concorde's defence counsel and somehow avoids the ice himself [could it be that is because he is the same car pool as the JM's?]

Bravefart charges the visitor Short Horn for showing off during the run by saying that the hills in City Beach are not a patch on the ones in Kowloon! Somehow Voodoo takes his DD as must be driving.

Cookie charges Kazi for hurling abuse on him and the other runners from a white Prado while returning from the Drink Stop.

Wimpy charges Voodoo and Short Horn for not looking after Coops on the run after he had pulled a hammy.

Pitstop charges Kazi for not recording the minutes of last weeks run [I think he means the Rag] correctly and then involved DV8 for some reason. Bravefart like the rest of us seem to lose this charge in translation but handed out DD's anyway and to Halfway and Rads – just for good measure! I think that Pitstop was referring to the Bring a Mate night on 22 February 2021. Put it in your diary!

WOW:

Our esteemed RA Cookie starts his show by inviting an “on this day”? Mase quick as a flash told the boys that it was the day that the Germans dropped bombs on England from a Zeppelin in WW1. Mase must have German blood in him the same as Cookie!

The resident Wanker MTM was called forth and invited to offer up candidates for WOW.

First one is Mausei for not keen to move the bus to more sheltered area from the light rain as he did not have the keys for the bus but bus driver Biggles had left these on the key board!

Second offering was Scrotus for trying to mimic MTM from the previous week by wearing his life saving cap gear!

Cookie then provided his own offerings being the Hares Wimpy and Kazi for the “run harder you bastards” comments from their vehicle.

Voodoo nominates Wimpy who with his superior knowledge of the City Beach area offered to help Wimpy set the run. As he passed within 50metres of Voodoo’s house he could also have had a drink stop there. That will be the day said the Hash in unison!

As often happens the proceedings are overshadowed by one event and this time it was Disgraceful trying to make a WOW nomination and addressing Cookie as the “stand-in” RA. He might look like the stand in but he is actually the real deal – this year at least! Disgraceful you are the WOW!

Run Report

Visitor Short Horn was called out to do the Run Report. He reckoned it was hard trail with too many hills! [I think that he may be taking the piss!]. He reckoned it was 7.2Km so he must have been short cutting with Voodoo! He gave it 3 out of 10 ? - and you thought that the Scot’s were miserly! From the information that I received the runners enjoyed it, it was a great drink stop and the beef burgers were tops so having the power of the pen I hereby revise that to an 8 out of 10!

Ice

Only poor fall guy Concorde had the pleasure of sitting on the ice this week.

Next Week’s Run:

CONCORD – Australia Day, Goodwood Boat Ramp, Balbuk Reserve, Rivervale

Next week’s Van driver:

BLOW JOB

Hash Lunch:

No Tagg in attendance this week so no update

Hares Act

Wimpy recites a poem that he has written about the history of H4 and its many stalwarts. Turn back time – without Cher!

Song:

Bravefart nominates Haberdash Precious for not selling the Short Horn a beer cooler to sing the circle closing song “Raise your Mugs”
